Take a walk down memory lane as you enter this old fashioned general store, complete with a soda fountain, antiques and gifts, home cooked meals and a pot belly stove.

Drake is a duck billboard which recognizes the historical relationship between former Governor Francis Drake and Centerville. Francis Drake, a Centerville native, had a very successful career as a Lieutenant Colonel, Governor, businessman, banker, lawyer, railroad builder, and founder of Drake University. The Drake billboards highlight interesting places to visit and display local history that connect the community to world events. At each Drake location there are maps pointing out all of the places Drake can be found.
